Introduction

Indira Gandhi Govt College Pandaria is a one of the best college which is place in side of Half River in Kabirdham District. As per order of principal of IGGC, Pandaria, Committee for making strategic plan for our college is constituted every year. Strategic Planning of the institution plays a vital role in successful accomplishment of the Vision and Mission, which it dreams of. Strategic planning is a continuous process with a specific emphasis on accomplishing institutional goals in this highly competitive world. The basic strengths of strategic planning are its abilities to help align the organisation with its environment, i.e., a set of internal and external forces that can positively or negatively affect the activities of an Institution. The Strategic Planning and Deployment (SPD) is formulated based on analysis of present challenges and future opportunities and it envisions the direction towards which the institution should move to achieve its set goals and objectives. The first part of SPD elucidates the vision, mission and core values of the institution along with long term & short term goals. The SWOC analysis of the institute formed the basis in framing the vision and mission which in turn depend on the feedback from stakeholders. After analysing the internal and external environment, the institutional goals were set up in all possible growth domains through a brainstorming sessions with HODs and faculty members. The strategies with action plans were decided to achieve institutional strategic goals. While formulating the strategic plan and deployment document, each and every stakeholder is made to involve by building a spirit of ownership in them. The document is circulated to all the departments. Highest attention has been paid to spell out clearly the execution and monitoring by identifying measurable targets in line with the anticipated outcomes. The SPD is discussed meticulously and approved by the Staff Council of the institution. After approval of Strategic development plan the next step is its implementation. During implementation the progress of strategy shall be measured from time to time. Hence the measurable success indicators are clearly spelt out in the implementation document. The Principal along with Academic Sub-committee are the custodian for strategic plan and its deployment.

Interaction.

Interaction is a process of mutual influence between two or more variables. It is a statistical measure that shows how the effect of one independent variable on a dependent variable changes as the level of another independent variable changes. In other words, it is the study of how the relationship between two variables varies across different levels of a third variable.

Interaction can be observed in many real-life situations. For example, the effect of a drug on a patient's health may vary depending on the patient's age and weight. Similarly, the effect of a teaching method on a student's performance may vary depending on the student's learning style and the teacher's experience. Interaction is a complex phenomenon that requires careful analysis and interpretation.
